

DAYVILLE FIRE COMPANY

STANDARD OPERATING GUIDELINES

Section: Apparatus

Date Issued: 5-12-97

SOG: C-4

SUBJECT: Apparatus Responds

PURPOSE: To set department policy on apparatus responding to calls.

DEFINITION:

The following is the order in which all apparatus will be responding to calls.

- Brush Fires – E163 - S-163 - ET163 - ET263 – R163
- Chimney Fires - ET163 - L163 - ET263 – E163 - R163
- House Type Structural Fires - ET163 - L163 - E163 - ET263 - R463 R163
- Industrial Fires w/Hydrants - ET163 - L163 - E163 - ET263 - R463 R163
- Vehicle Accidents - R463 - E163 - ET163 - R163
- Vehicle Fires - ET163 - R463 - E163 – R163
- CO Detector - ET163 - R163 - R463
- Medical - R163
- Haz Mat Incidents – R463 - ET163 - S163 w/Trailer - R163
No Lights or Siren will be used during towing of trailer.
- Industrial Accidents - R463 - R163
- Water Emergencies - S-163 - E163 – ET163
- Mutual Aid - If full assignment is asked for the order is - ET163 - L163 - ET263 - E163 - R463, otherwise the apparatus requested will respond only.

NOTE: The first apparatus or the apparatus requested shall be manned with a minimum of (4) qualified inside firefighters if possible. Any exemptions will be determined by the highest ranked person responding to the incident. The apparatus driver will contact said person by radio if required before responding if above manning cannot be met.

A non-qualified member can be substituted to meet the above requirement by the highest ranked person on the apparatus.

- Q.V. Task Force - S-163 w/Trailer - ET163
No Lights or Siren will be used during towing of trailer.